REPUBLICANS WILL NOT BE MISGUIDED

By the Hypocritical and Unscrupulous Democratic Attacks Upon the Present

BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

Whose Business-Like Administration of the County's Affairs is Well Known.

Will the Republicans of Ohio county assist in voting into office a Democratic board of commissioners?

Have Republicans forgotten the Democratic board of commissioners that refused to allow its Republican members, Messrs. Maxwell and McGregor, the privilege of naming their own Republican election officers in Liberty and Madison districts respectively? The present Republican board allowed the Democratic members to name election officers of their own choice.

Have the Republicans of Ohio county forgotten the rotten records by two or three Democratic boards. They counted out Atkinson and gave certificate to Pendleton. They robbed S. G. Smith of the seat in the house to which he was honestly elected in 1892, and gave the seat to M. J. O'Kane. Have Republicans forgotten the United States marshals they had at the polls, and the arresting of legal voters?

Do the voters think their interests will be best sub-served defeating such men as H. P. McGregor, Andrew S. Hare, B. F. Higgins, Charles Moore and the other Republican candidates, and electing in their places George Robinson, Boary, Stevens, et al?

The Register criticizes the present board's financial statement. In this statement, the board only followed the procedure established by Democratic boards. The Register criticizes the item of $300,000 Wheeling Bridge & Terminal Railway Company stock in the statement of assets, saying it ought to be put in at market value, which is claimed to be nothing. IF SO, WHY DOESN'T THE REGISTER ALSO ENTER THE CLAIM THAT THE BOARD SHOULD SWEET THE $100,000 HOLDING OF PEWEEY STOCK TO THE $200,000 THAT REPRESENTS ITS MARKET VALUE? THAT WOULD SWEET THE COUNTY'S ASSETS $100,000, BUT THE BOARD DID NOTHING OF THE SORT, MERELY ENTERING THE STOCK AT ITS FACE VALUE, JUST AS THE TERMINAL STOCK WAS ENTERED.

Who but a Democratic board of commissioners left that $200,000 Terminal indebtedness? And who but a Republican board, run on business principles, is paying off that indebtedness at the rate of $20,000 a year?

With the glee of a printer's ink belauded Mephisto, the Register inquires as to the item of $18,000 bills payable in the board's statement, endeavoring to make its readers believe that it doesn't know what constitutes the item. THE REGISTER KNOWS IF IT KNOWS ANYTHING THAT A DEMOCRATIC BOARD BORROWED $100,000 FROM THE WHEELING BANKS TO BUILD THE NEW COUNTY JAIL, AND IT ALSO KNOWS THAT REPUBLICAN BOARDS HAVE BEEN SHOULDERING THAT INDEBTEDNESS AND THAT THE ITEM OF $18,000 REPRESENTED THE BALANCE OF THAT INDEBTEDNESS. THE REGISTER ALSO KNOWS THAT $10,000 OF THAT $18,000 HAS BEEN PAID THIS YEAR BY THE PRESENT REPUBLICAN BOARD. And still the unscrupulous Register would attempt to make campaign capital out of something that is really an example of the business-like methods of the present Republican board in conducting the county's affairs.

Look at the magnificent highways and bridges that have been provided for Ohio county, giving easy access to the city from the surrounding country, and then ask where the county's money has been expended. AND ALL THIS HAS BEEN DONE WITHOUT AN INCREASE IN THE COUNTY'S TAX LEVY.

The Register hypocritically demands an itemized statement of the county's expenditures, while knowing that such a statement would require several issues of an entire newspaper several times larger than the Register. Probably the Register desires a fat advertising contract at the expense of the county—which it will not get.

It is the true interest of the business men and citizens generally to retain business men of tried ability on the county board. A vote for the Republican candidates for commissioner will aid in retaining such a board.

A WRONG VIEW.

Free Consultation and Reasonable
Charges the Secret of Dr.
Smith's Success.

In the short time that Dr. Charles Lincoln Smith has been in our city he has gained the confidence and good will of our wealthiest citizens, who have been in his skillful hands. Many people have therefore, seemingly gained the erroneous impression that his charges are beyond their means and as a consequence have refrained from visiting him when they really require the services that he can alone render them.

Dr. Smith desires it expressly understood that his charges are within the reach of all. The laboring man, mechanic, clerk, merchant or banker are equally liable to defective vision, and the doctor treats people from every walk in life. If you are suffering from any of the symptoms which indicate that your eyes require attention, remember that it costs nothing to gain Dr. Smith's opinion. Consultation is free to every one, and that you can be advised exactly as to what is wrong and what the glasses necessary to correct the defect will cost.

Dr. Smith urgently requests that all who are suffering in the least degree from impaired vision or its consequent ailments, come to his rooms and enjoy the privileges of a free consultation. There is absolutely no charge until you are satisfied that he can render you the necessary service and it is guaranteed that the charge will be in keeping with your purse.

MUSICAL WHEELING.

The attraction at the Opera House last evening, Innes and his famous band and a trio of singers, was greeted by a distinctively complimentary audience and the splendid work in an interesting programme was thoroughly appreciated. Several selections received deserved encores and the beautiful compositions of Mr. Innes, an intermezzo and "Prince Charming," a new two-step, had to be repeated. The cornet solo by Mr. Krayl was an enjoyable number. The vocal solos interspersed in the first part were admirably sung by Edgardo Zerni, tenor, and Mme. Noldi. Signor Zerni was new to a Wheeling audience, but his sympathetic voice at once attracted attention. Mme. Noldi had been heard here before, but her exceptionally good voice was heard to much better advantage last evening and she received an ovation. The enthusiastic reception of both solos however, elicited no encores. Both singers were heard again favorably in "Il Trovatore," together with Signor Alberti, a favorite in Wheeling, and hearty applause rewarded his fine baritone and good work. Mr. Innes' manner of conducting is worthy of the highest praise. The evening throughout was a delightful one for music lovers and the attraction will at any time call forth a large audience in this city.

The musical attraction this evening is the Leipzig Quartette at St. James German Lutheran church, on North Chapline street. It will be an interesting event to lovers of music, especially to those interested in sacred music, and a large audience will be present. The programme, which includes selections from the fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth century styles is appended in full.

The inaugural of the series of winter concerts of the Philharmonic Trio is now an assured fact, and the first may be expected the second week in November at the Carroll Club auditorium. Musical Wheeling congratulates itself on this reorganization of what furnishes the standard of its status.

It will also be delightful to Musical Wheeling to learn that a project on foot by Mr. Charles N. Boyd, of Pittsburgh, to bring to this city a series of recitals, in which will be included "In a Persian Garden," a work many Wheelingites have gone to Pittsburgh to hear.

The promise of the Pittsburgh Symphony orchestra, under Victor Herbert, later in the winter season, is another pleasure anticipated.
